GROSVENOR 3443.

3rd September

Dear Mr. Chowdhury,

I was glad of the chance to greet you today, albeit briefly, and to renew the many close ties of friendship we have had with your great country since Dr. Buchman was asked by the Quaid-i-Azam to come to Pakistan.

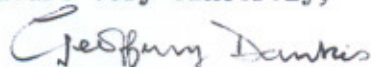

I love your country, which I have visited many times, and I have always believed that Pakistan, with her strong faith in Islam permeating every activity, is the natural leader of Asia and would demonstrate a new way of solving problems to China, Russia and the West.

I enclose a recent publication which gives some insight into the determined effort being made by patriots in many lands to counteract the decadence, corruption and selfishness we are a prey to in West as in East.

I do hope that, if you return to this country, we may have the honour and pleasure of entertaining you.

With every good wish.

Yours very sincerely,

(Geoffrey Daukes)
